

News from the Fishbon Library

August 2019

Updates for UCSF clinical nursing staff on library classes and services, tips on research for nursing practice and resources for patients & families

Support for Nursing Policies and Procedures

If you are updating any of our Nursing policies or procedures, remember the Fishbon Library can assist.

We can search the recent literature to help find current information on your topic. We can also help with citation management and formatting of bibliographic references in APA style.

Email us at fishbon@ucsf.edu

Quick Tip: Evidence Summaries from the Joanna Briggs Institute (JBI)

No time to look for best evidence? Check out an Evidence Summary from JBI. Recent topics include:

- prevention of urethral catheter UTIs,
- non-pharmacological interventions for sleep
- best flooring for reducing severity of patient falls.

To access the database, click the Joanna Briggs Institute link under Clinical References on CareLinks. Once you enter your search terms, click "Limits" then select "Evidence Summaries" as the Publication Type.

Promoting Your Research: Writing an Abstract

Submitting your research for publication or presentation requires summarizing your work in an abstract. The form of the abstract may vary somewhat depending on the content, type of research study, or guidelines/requirements of the publisher or conference host.

Here are 8 articles from PubMed with some tips for writing an abstract:
